"The CSRF brings retired civil servants into the civil service community. I always like getting their newsletters as you start to imagine what it was like to be a civil servant for 30 or 40 years. It gives you a sense of what the Fellowship means to those people. It's so important for retired civil servants to part of our network and connected to other civil servants today."

Paddy, Department for Health & Social Care

"Whether you've worked in the Civil Service for two months or 20 years, you're always a part of the Civil Service Retirement Fellowship." Jane, Local London Group Volunteer

"The CSRF is not just for retired people but for you too. It's for the real feel good factor – the smile factor."

Louise, Department for Work & Pensions

It's so important for retired civil servants to feel connected. The CSRF makes it all happen and it's a wonderful thing."
