Lockdown Legends @ HASSRA Shrewsbury

HASSRA members and their families at HASSRA Shrewsbury, our best small club in the country, have been busy colouring throughout lockdown. Over a period of 6 weeks the club released a new image each week of one of the “COVID-19 Lockdown Legends” to keep the family occupied. Images included the nation’s favourite PE Teacher Joe Wicks, Captain Sir Tom Moore, Netflix sensation the Tiger King, Her Majesty the Queen and a compilation of the iconic images. Those who took part were each awarded a £10 Amazon gift card for their efforts, funded via the national lockdown programme. The completed images are now on display in the office, so that everyone can reflect on this unprecedented period once it’s all over in the future.

Telford Newtown House Mountaineering Squad

Congratulations to the Telford Mountaineering Squad based at Newtown House for completing their latest wellbeing challenge. The team completed the equivalent number of steps required to climb England's highest mountain Scafell Pike, at 978 metres above sea level. Special thanks must go to Debbie Osborne who motivated everyone throughout lockdown to complete each challenge using the steps outside the office.

The team are now taking a well-earned break, to heal their blisters and relax those aching muscles over the summer period. The question is, what will they do next?! Well done all!
