Lending a helping hand during times of need

HASSRA West Midlands Board of Management member Lorraine Morris has been lending a helping hand during these difficult times. Lorraine, who is based at Five Ways House, volunteered to help out at the Change Kitchen in Birmingham prepping meals for children during the school half term.

Lorraine said; "I started off preparing a mountain of broccoli followed by mushrooms, before packing 150 portions of Moroccan stew for the next day. I take my hat off to the chef and volunteers who do this every day because it's really hard work! Over 300 meals go out from the kitchen to feed those who rely on them – this is the reality for some families. The organisation do an amazing job supporting the community and also organise food parcels for the homeless and those sheltering during lockdown."

Telford Taskmaster Team Tasks

Telford Newtown House have recently launched the 'Taskmaster Team Tasks Challenge' as a bit of fun amongst all teams on site and to keep everyone's spirits up during these unprecedented times.

For task number 1, teams were asked to send in a photo of their team members best gurn or silly face. With stiff competition for first prize, Sean Greening from Team 23 was selected as the winner and received a £20 gift voucher for his team. Let's hope Sean can find the makeup remover before we come out of lockdown!

Celebrating Remembrance Day in Style

On the 11th hour of the 11th day in the 11th month, HASSRA members and colleagues at Walsall Service Centre paid their respects to our fallen war heroes with a number of fitting tributes to commemorate the occasion.

The highlight of the day was the forties dress competition, with colleagues dressing up in their best 1940s style outfits and cash prizes on offer to the best dressed. Below is a selection of the outfits on display.

Other activities on offer throughout the day included a COVID secure cake sale, subsidised mini fish and chips and a poppy art activity to create a Walsall poppy.

Thanks to everyone's incredible hard work and generosity, a total of £300 was raised for The Royal British Legion on the day. Well done Walsall!
